Cloud Brighter.

The Prospects Favorable For Both Branches of the Kentucky Legislature Meeting.

MAY MEET IN FRANKFORT NEXT MONDAY

Effort Being Made to Reach an Agreement As To Who Shall Preside In the Senate.

Officers Reach an Agreement—Beckham Recognized By a Prison Warden.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 16.—The prospects for the legislature getting together and holding regular sessions at the state capital are conceded to be brighter now than since Taylor adjourned the body to meet at London, followed by the arrival of the democratic branch to Louisville.

Speaker Trimble told leading dems who were in Louisville that he thought both branches would meet together at Madison. Efforts are being made to reach an agreement as to who shall preside in the senate, in order to avoid a clash between Lieut. Gov. Marshall and Senator Carter, president pro tem of the senate, and if this is settled, the chief barrier to the democratic and republican branches meeting together will have been removed. It is believed this will be harmonized upon Monday.

Attorneys for contestants and contestants have signed the following agreement, which is a contract of the contestants of minor state offices.

"We, the undersigned attorneys for contestants and contestants, hereby agree that all the testimony taken in the contests for governor and lieutenant-governor in the city of Frankfort, so far as the same is pertinent and relevant, may be read as evidence in the contest for the minor state offices now pending, before the state board of election commissioners now sitting as a contest board; and it is further agreed that the contestants shall be entitled to be heard without argument, the counsel for neither side nor any other person to be present during the trial; and the contestants expressly reserving all rights to exercise their right to a trial by jury or other proceedings which they may have under the law; and further that the said contestants do not by the agreement waive or relinquish any objection to the jurisdiction of the board, and that the board shall take action after the board shall have acted on the preliminary motions and affidavits heretofore filed before said board by the said contestants and all of them which shall be shown by the records, and in the event said motions and affidavits are sustained by the board, shall be disregarded by the board, this agreement to be in effect and binding at once, this February 15, 1900."

The clash between the democratic and republican leaders of the state government has been emphasized by the prison officials releasing John Sells, a Louisville convict, on a pardon issued by Beckham. Deputy Warden Pinch was acting warden, and when the prison doors were opened, he was the first to be released, and the latter left the city at once. Douglass Hays, a Knott county convict, recently pardoned by Taylor, is still in confinement, the prison officials refusing to recognize Taylor as governor.

CENSUS OF LIVE STOCK.

A New Feature Will Be Tried for the First Time in the History of the Country.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Gov. Merriam, director of the census, appointed Charles F. Martin, of Denver, and secretary of the National Live Stock association, to conduct the work of the taking of a classified census of live stock for the 11th census. Mr. Martin was sworn in at once. The headquarters for this division of the work which embraces all the range country, will be established in Denver and the work will be commenced at once.

This will be the first time in the history of the country that a classified census of live stock will have been taken. The work will be done at the aggregation of many a town and through the assistance of Hon. L. G. Powers, Senator Wolcott, Gor, Merriman and others, congress made the necessary appropriation to carry out the work.

John L. Pennington Dead.

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 16.—John L. Pennington died in the Sisters' Hospital, a branch of the Los Angeles Hospital. He was a well known newspaper man and a member of one of the most prominent families in the south. Mr. Pennington's father served for two terms as governor of Dakota territory under Lincoln, and was at one time a member of the Alabama legislature. J. L. Pennington was born in Opelika, Ala., July 5, 1867.

Food Subsidy.

Montpelier, Vt., Feb. 16.—The food in this city went down rapidly, and the principal streets of the city, into which the Winooski river had flowed, became almost a perfect quagmire. A careful estimate of the damage caused by the freshets here places it at $140,000.

Woman Burned to Death.

Greensboro, Ga., Feb. 15.—Mrs. Bettie Closby, while placing a stick of wood on the fire ignited her clothes and was burned to death.

RELIEF AT LAST.

The War Office Announces That Gen. French Reached Kimberley Thursday Evening.

NO FURTHER NEWS FROM GEN. ROBERTS

It Is Believed That An Important Battle Is Being, Or About to Be, Fought.

Gen. Cronje Expected to Make a Stand Against the British Forces Several Skirmishes Permitted to Be Reported.

London, Feb. 16—9:51 a. m.—The British war office has just announced that Gen. French reached Kimberley Thursday evening. No further details are given.

London, Feb. 16.—As the wires are closed to correspondents with Lord Kimberley, the military experts who have been communicated to the public, the military experts spend their time in studying maps, topography and figuring out the possibilities of Lord Kimberley's communication and what would be the best route for the Boers to follow.

Gen. Cronje's communication with Bloemfontein have already been cut. The best news England could hear would be that he elects to give battle among the low hills and ridges west of Kimberley. Should he determine to do so, he must make a hasty retreat to a point where he would prefer to fight. This retirement could be a long detour around the head of the British advance to Bloemfontein, or, as seems to be the case, he would be compelled to withdraw to the north, using the railroad for his guns and heavy baggage, moving to Fourteen Streams station and thence into Transvaal territory. The Boers have made no preparations to defend Fourteen Streams, and should they remain by the railway Gen. Cronje should risk a battle to protect the capital of the Free State. Operations elsewhere are apparently suspended.

A correspondent, writing from Bloemfontein, Feb. 15, says: "We are still hopeful of relieving Ladysmith."

Col. Baden-Powell, in a dispatch from Mafeking, dated January 29, after mentioning matters already sent out by correspondents, gives his total up to January 23 as follows: Killed, 5; wounded, 60; missing, 34 men.

No word has been received regarding Gen. Gatacre's 12,000 men at Robertsburg. The impression is that these forces are on the way to Lord Roberts.

The official list of the British casualties at Rensburg from February 10 to 12 shows: Killed, 4 officers and 7 men; wounded, 6 officers and 14 men; missing, 5 officers and 8 men. The officers killed were Col. Coningham, of the Worcester regiment, and Major Gredy and Lieuts. J. Powell and J. C. Roberts, all of the Australians.

British Safety a Severe Loss.

Buer Laager, near Ladysmith, Feb. 13.—Yesterday Gen. Botha, with a small force, crossed the Tugela to a deserted British camp where he encountered 200 Boers, of whom 13 were killed, 5 wounded and 9 taken prisoner. One of the prisoners was sent to tell the British to fetch their wounded.

British Safety a Severe Loss.

Buer Laager, Feb. 13.—The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Chronicle telegraphed Wednesday, says: "It is reported here that the British have evacuated Rensburg and are returned to Arundel."

House Provides for the War.

London, Feb. 16.—The house of commons adopted the government's military estimate by a vote of 239 against 34, the minority consisting chiefly of Irish members.

STAMPING OUT THE PLAGUE.

Only Two Deaths and No New Cases or Suspects in Honolulu Since the Last Report, January 22.

Washington, Feb. 16.—M. S. Miles, 6th artillery, commanding at Camp McKinley, Honolulu, reports to the war department that as of Feb. 10, since the date of the last report, January 22, only two deaths have occurred from bubonic plague, and that in the last eight days, excepting a doubtful case which had not yet been determined, no new cases and no suspects have been reported.

He says the conditions are most encouraging and favorable in all respects and adds that it is believed that if existing conditions continue, the quarantine of Honolulu may be raised within the succeeding 20 days.

Change of Navy Officers.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Capt. John W. McKinley has been promoted to captain of the navy yard, Mare Island, California, and ordered to command the flagship Philadelphia, relieving Capt. George C. Reiter, who is ordered to become inspector of the navy yards at Mare Island, San Francisco, and the Union river works, San Francisco.

Capt. Wm. H. Whiting has been ordered to duty as captain of the Mare Island navy yard.

Chief of the Royal Household Dead.

Madrid, Feb. 16.—Duke de Medina-Sidonia, grand chamberlain and chief of the royal household, is dead.

OFFERED A BRIBE.

Some Highly Sensational Testimony Before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Highly sensational testimony was offered before the investigation by the senate committee on privileges and elections of the election of W. A. Clark to the senate from Montana. Justice Hunt, a republican member of the Montana supreme court, and his family, including his son, Dr. Tracy, had made plain to him that the (justice) regarded as appropriate to have him consider a $100,000 bribe to favor Lawyer Welcome, one of Mr. Clark's attorneys, in the disbarment proceedings. Justice Hunt, however, refused to accept the bribe, and Dr. Tracy, his son, has since been summoned to appear before the committee.

Following is a letter from Corporal Roy Dugman:

MANILA, P. I.

Dear Mother: I take pleasure in writing you a letter from this side of the world. I am very well and hope you are all the same. I was confused when I wrote from Gibraltar. I was too soon to get home and that time.

December 24th—We have crossed the Atlantic and are sailing on the Mediterranean Sea. Now I will tell you something about our trip.

December 3rd—Weather fine and calm and we are making good speed. At 10 o'clock p.m. on the sixteenth we stopped to take on coal. The land had been sighted from the lookout, and about 3 p.m. we could see land with the naked eye.

December 24th—We are just entering the Strait of Gibraltar and are sailing between the coasts of Spain and Africa. We have been on the water since 10 a.m. We entered the harbor of Gibraltar. This is the strongest fort in the world. There were eight big English warships there when we left. The fort and Rock were the grandest sights I ever saw. I had a good time with some English sailors and they seemed to think the Yankees boys are all of it.

December 4th—I am on guard today but duty is not hard on the ship. The wind is blowing and we have some big waves, but we are used to them now. The sun has now come out and it is very bright. We are having a pleasant time. This morning we are just outside of Malta, another big English port. It is a fine place. They have several large vessels here, also some torpedo boats. They saluted us when we sailed in. We are sailing here, taking the time to rest.

December 10th—We reached Port Said at 1:30 p.m., another fine place, where we enter the Suez Canal, from 25 to 50 yards wide. The country is very flat and sandy; but you can see very little vegetation.

December 11th—We are still in the Canal and have been traveling in it all day. I saw great droves of camels and Arabs here. At 7 p.m. we reached Suez but did not stay long. At 9 p.m. we were about to enter the Red Sea, where Pharaoh and his army were drowned.

December 12th—We passed Mt. Sinai at 7 a.m. My arm is very sore from vaccination.

December 25th—It does not seem much like Christmas, the weather now being as hot as it is in July at home. We had a good time today, turkey, cranberry sauce and other good things too numerous to mention.

December 30th—We drew up to the dock at Singapore this morning and our Company were on shore. This is very curious, and to us a strange sight. I have been within one degree of the equator.

January 4th—We reach Manila, when we were within four or five miles of the harbor, at 10 p.m., there was a strong searchlight thrown on us.

January 5th—I am 19 years old today and make up the other side of the world. We are getting tired of the bus, having been on shp 47 days. I would not take a big fortune for my trip. We begin to look like soldiers now. We have everything required for the first few rounds of ammunition yesterday. You can see we are doing all the time. We are now on land and ready for business. The natives were preparing to hold a funeral the other day and our guard held them in line and stopped the natives, and behold, it was full of gun for old soldiers and his army. Shy, wasn't it? We are in barracks all of bamboo poles, an odd-looking sight. We will go to the firing line tonight, and how glad I am. They can't call me a featherbed soldier now. I will close now. From your boy.

A Convincing Answer.

I added into Mr. Blackwell's "Lectures and Stories," says: "I am in Hamilton, Ohio, and am about to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine, but he said, 'Well, we all know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it. I took a bottle of it home and used it, and it did not help me. When I was cured, I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism.' Said by J. J. Wood & Son.

Mr. W. D. Cushman and family will leave Dover soon and will temporarily locate at Newport News, Va.
